Pro-Choice Rally In Washington, D.C.

NOVEMBER 12, 1989

On Saturday night, November 11, 1989 forty-two Freshman and Sophomores boarded an Amtrack train for a nine hour commute to our nation's capital. We would be travelling all night long, only to arrive in Washington, D.C. the following morning, a few hours before the mobilization was to begin. For many of us this was something new and we weren't sure what to expect.

We came representing our high school and the rights for women to be able to make their own decisions. Our creative and colorful signs expressed our views and showed much thought and preparation. However, within the seriousness and importance of the rally, we managed to have a lot of fun. (But, not very much sleep!) Throughout the night numerous adults complained of our noise level. We attempted sleeping under the chairs, above in the luggage racks, and uprightly uncomfortable in our chairs. We even fought for the chairs without middle armrests and took advantage of the snack bar on board.

Our "fearless" leader, "Kolb" portrayed an unsuccessful, yet noble attempt to keep us in line. Nevertheless, she did an outstanding job organizing the Brookline contingency.

Before the rally began, some of us decided to visit George and Barbara at The White House. We took the metro (The exclusively modern public transportation system that amazed us with its cleanliness and almost space-age ingenuity) to get from place to place throughout our stay. We also visited the Vietnam Wall which moved us all.

We were all surprised to meet back on the green, in front of the Lincoln Memorial, along with the other 150,000 people. Kolb taught us a few songs, but the one that we liked the best went to the tune of "America": "My body's mine and that is all I really have to say. America, America, what's happening to you? If church and state don't separate, democracy is through." We captured the crowd in our own unique way.

I think that we would all agree that this trip was worthwhile. It is important to fight for what you believe in and remember that you can make a difference in this world.

FOOTBALL

The '89 football team had its ups and downs. But with a good attitude, talent, and desire the ups stood out a lot more than the downs. With game-breaking runs by (Robo-Back) Korey Whitfield, the consistency and power of Malik (Mal) Cavallo, and with Kenan Bigby's depth we had a solid ground game. When we went to the air there was no decline in performance. Captain Langston Cawthorne tore apart defenses with his accurate and explosive arm. He hit wide-outs Matt Moroney, Jeremy Ross, and Andrew Gamere. The "Log" Mike Kelleher and the "Fruitster" Mike Fenton also caught a good share of Cawthorne's passes. The hogs led by Jesse (Hair) Ritter, Erich (the Headless Horseman) Horsley, Jumpin' Jason Liu and Bouncin' Zeke Bowman controlled defensive lines all year. The defense was led by Asaf (Captain Crunch) Halevi, David (X-Man) Lynch, and Matt "Chester" Lopez at the linebacker positions and Kris Kuropatkin and Shani King at the defensive back positions keeping opponents' offenses in check. Nobody got by the "Stick Squad."

Thanks to all the coaches and cheerleaders and special thanks to Mr. Norton and the support from the parents and students. Good Luck next year and keep up the winning tradition.

From Captains: Asaf A-Hard Halevi and
Langston L-Strong Cawthorne

P.S. You don't inherit the ability to win, you earn it with teamwork and spirit.

This year's cheerleading squad was well different. We had our arguments, our little disagreements, but we all know that because we're all so different, we had more fun. Whether we were "boody boody"-ing on the sideline or laughing during our half-time pyramids, we always managed to have fun together. Now something for everyone:

Christina — free dinner because the suckers thought they could beat Brockton
Sarah Rosenfeld — a safer, less windy mode of transportation
Jamie — a chance to shake her boody
Ephrat — just a little more rhythm and coordination
Sara Russo — the ability to dance like —
Tobe — tree trunk thighs and bulging biceps
Gracy — a lifetime supply of long underwear
Julie — food from the concession stand
Kim — a halo
Rachel — more pep, spirit, liveliness .
Jaya — don't forget to put your thumb on your forehead
Michelle — a miracle hair product for her "Malden" do
Dawn — Fenton's name
Paul — new poultry cheers and black clothing

Thanks to the football team for their winning season, Mr. Cawthorne for his "SAT vocab" buttons and Paul for his support, time, and energy (not to mention demos of the cheers)

Love,
Sharon & Cecilia

Visions of a return trip to the State Tournament didn't materialize for this year's boys' soccer squad. Early season losses to beatable teams and an unbelieveable number of injuries to key players didn't help our cause. Led by our "born again" coach, we engaged in an effort for team unity and hard work in the form of team homework sessions, talk sessions, and lots of running. But we were rewarded for our hard work w/fun on the bus, soccer, soccer-volleyball, Brandon, and a rare opportunity to see a sophomore scoop up doo-doo. And althought our goal output wasn't particularly high and we didn't keep our opponents at bay offensively, like we thought we could, we held our own. With this young team that's equal to success we had fun and learned a lot this year and that's what the game is all about. Thanks to Coach Strasner for a wonderful year.

Good luck from your Captains:

First of all, let us start off by saying that although others might disagree:

"We are the greatest
we are the best
we are the greatest
BHS"

Despite Mr. Coombs' encouraging words after every game, "We're getting there," and "it's coming along," our record left much room for improvement. Yet our spirit was undaunted throughout the season. Was it those power papers we all rubbed our faces in or the power pellets we chomped on before games? Or it could have been those BROOKLINE jumping jacks and our five minute discussions as we decided what to cheer. Some record co. will soon be signing us to make a single out of our "BE AGGRESSIVE" cheer.

What all of this shows is that despite the fact that ours wasn't a winning season, we had energy and spirit throughout; that in itself is something to be proud of. We wish even more spirit and energy for next year, along with a winning season which will bring you to the states!

It's been fun! Much Love,

Jess and Steph

Missing: Tri-Captain Paul Sacks.

This year's cross country team battled through adverse conditions, the worst of which was the typhoon during the Waltham meet. Among the Warriors were Matt "The Mountain Man" Cooney and durable Dave Steinbergh, the two men Brookline C.C. will look to next year. Ben Honoroff and Andrew Ames showed incredible improvement for their tireless work. Felix and Andrew Mac ran well most of the time except for Felix who blew off most practices. (teasing my man) Freshmen Dave and Marios learned the hardest lesson of C.C. — Pain Rewards! Mike, Rich, and How provided a good means of transportation (their cars) even if they couldn't run (they weren't that bad). Ben Nathan could run — he just didn't (nothing personal). Finally, let us congratulate Sam Riley on his awesome performance at the league meet. It's been fun, and we wish the best for the team and Coach Laakso in the years to come. Hey Paul . . . HEARTBREAK HILL FOREVER!

Lynn Tang.

With only three returning runners, this was to be a tough season. We did our best at recruiting and ended up with a team of eight. Our 2-4 record doesn't speak for the accomplishments of the individuals. Caitlin inspired us with pre-race pep talks and then went out to beat that opponent. Liz put her long legs to work and proved that she could run, as well as talk, quickly. Cairn discovered that she can run a race longer than 400 meters. Astride and Ingride showed that they may look the same but are unique and dedicated runners. Lika and Min-Li were very determined and made good improvements. Every year someone gets injured and this year it was my turn. (again) However, I had fun being captain and as a final note I'd like to say, Keep the spirit and don't forget to eat your granola, Liz. Good Luck!

"Just do it!"

Brookline Swim Team:

As seniors, we want to thank you for making our season so special. Although this year marks the end of Suburbans and fine beginning of the Bay State League, our team has proven it will always be on top because of its hard work and class. Even when we fought among ourselves, the team was able to work it out and we became stronger for it. Special thanks to Bill and Jim, who cared enough to become a part of whatever was bringing us up or down. We love you!

— Abbie, Janine, & Amy

Here are a few quotes to remember the seniors by:

Abbie — "Group Stretch!" and all you ever think about is food and . . .

Amy — "Nuh uh. I'm on a diet"

Janine — "Ready!" 11.

Heather — "hips," your butterfly kick is looking good!

Helen — Hey, do you have a ruler?!

Leah — Four years of hard work paid off!

Gwen — "You guys, does my cap smell like rye bread?"

Jane — "O.K." — put her in it, she'll swim it and win it

Cara — "I'm dreadfully sorry, but you're just going to have to put up with it!"

Anna — "Do we have a meet today?"

It was a fun season, although our games were cursed. But we stayed pumped. We'll always remember Chinese girl, Killer, Karen Frank a.k.a. Lisa Burke, the hot waiters at Skipjacks, evil refs, meditation, grandma's fudge, and trick or treating. Don't worry, you can all visit us at RCC. Good luck! We love you! Girls, you know it's true.
Your Captains forever,

As we started the season, the team set several goals with the likes of Victor Koytikh, Jason Morin, Noah Clark, Michael Dunlap, and Langston Cawthorne, those goals became reality. By winning twelve of our first thirteen games, we earned a birth in the state tournament, and our eyes were then set on the suburban league title.

In order to fulfill our goals, we knew that we would have to go through perennial powers Brockton, and Cambridge; but with returning Varsity lettermen Hans Blough, and Malik Barnes, the rebounding abilities of Michael Fenton, and Ben Guzzetti, the sharp shooting of Kris Kuropatkin, and Eric Hajer, the inspiration of Willie Jacobson, and the desire and hard work of 1st-year player Tahir Hussian, we knew that our chances were good.

On behalf of the team we'd like to thank coaches Malcolm Wynn, Keith Jones, Stuart Abrams, and a special thanks to head coach Lance Tucker and the cheerleaders. We couldn't have done it without you!

Our season started out with a 5-1-1 record in the Greater Boston league due to a 5-5 tie against Somerville and a hard-fought 3-2 loss at Arlington. After our strong beginning, we started our pursuit of the league title in the final year of the Suburban league. Every year we set our sights on beating Brockton, finishing our season undefeated, and appearing in the State Tournament played at the Boston Garden. No matter what the outcome at the end of the season, we'll always remember the team.

Good luck to next year's teams. We wish you all success in the years to come in the Bay State League.

BOYS' TRACK

Led by Captains James Kirtley, Mike Tow and Dan Max, the Brookline Boys Track Team had a fun and exciting season. Our last suburban league record was 2-4, but our relay team was 5-2 over all. Impressive performances included Alex Parent and Dave "Crash" Dela Cruz in the 50 and 300 and Matt "Mountain Man" Cooney in the 1000. Also, Dave Steinberg doubling in the one and two mile along with James Kirtley in the 1000 and the high jump.

Some other memories; Everyone being Mike Tow's best friend at lollipop time; Dan Max always leading his race (the first lap at least); Jesse could compete in anything if you only ask him; Andrew "The Highlander" was the only runner with a battle cry; Felix seemed to have a tennis ball problem; Dave was the only one who got to show off this year; Eddie Odems and Tom Randolph getting the Hanz and Franz award, nobody knows what they will get.

Special thanks to Joe "Moose" Demby who got it all on tape and Dave Counts and Rick Kates who sacrificed any social life and dignity they had to put in endless hours with the team.

Lastly, the returning runners and top freshman prospect Dan Rothstein should make "The team of too many Daves" a great success next year. Good Luck!!! (you'll need it!)

— James, Mike, & Dan

GIRLS' TRACK

This year's track team has shown a lot of promise. Our new sophmores are making the future for winter track look bright. Miler Julie Lavelle hasn't lost a race yet. Maria Hennessey is carrying on her family's tradition of speed. India Viola is proving to be a dominant force in the sprints. The field event spots are being filled by freshmen Kristen Kane, shot-put, Rachel Price, high jump, and we even recruited a hurdler, Alizah.

The loss of seniors this year will be tough as always but there are still juniors, Caitlin, Leah, Enid, and Raphaella to lead the team (hopefully to victory) next year.

Good luck for the years to come!
Karen, Haidee, & Astride

It was a year of great struggle with many obstacles to overcome. Although we lacked depth in our squad, we did our best to earn a winning record We leave these last memories of the 1990 wrestling team:

Sammy C.: Who took our Cora jokes in stride and ended up with a winning record.

Steve: The runnning man — he filled the spot when Fat Albert couldn't suck down.

Albert: The human camel. He ate a Snickers faster than you can say Puleo.

Sammy Y.: Keep on smiling. No Headlocks!!!

Kwok: The only kid with 20% body fat. Step over one more time and you get Mongolian wrestling.

Thul: The only kid who could eat a four-course meal and still make weight. T-BONE.

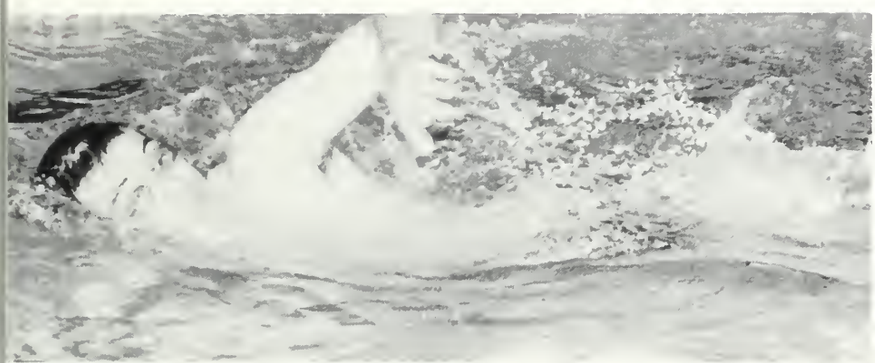
As freshmen, who could not finish our "five hundreds," we had two dreams: One was to become captains and the other was to graduate from high schoool with style, as Suburban League Champions. Through hard work, tenacity, sacrifice and a lot of yelling we were able to pull together as a team that not only was able to set a goal and achieve it, but also have fun in the interim-pizza parties, pasta parties, and plain old parties. Now, as seniors, we have one more dream, a dream that with a little perseverance can become a reality. The dream is that the tradition and legacy of the swim team being the hardest working, most skillful and definitely the smartest team at BHS will continue on for generations. This means that when the going gets tough the swim team must get tougher. When we were freshmen we lost eight star swimmers and thought that we had no chance to win again. Fortunately, we were wrong. We had to motivate and restructure the team and througth excellent coaching we quickly became a winning team again. Climaxing this year with winning the Last Suburban League Title fulfilled part of our dream and we hope that you as the future team and team leaders will be able to maintain a winning team even at the hardest moments.

Thanks to all the supportive parents and especially the swimmers and divers.

Sincerely Yours,
Captains Adi Loebl, Armand Sindoni & Sam Riley



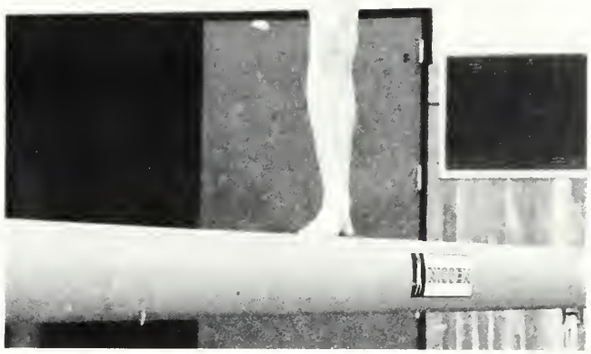
GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

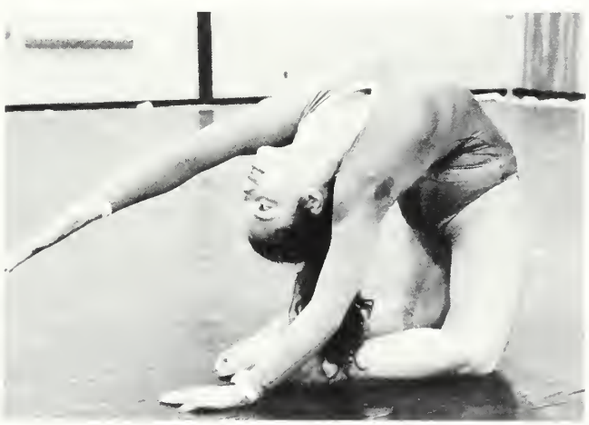
1st Row: Lynn Tang, Captain Yardena Hipsch, Camille Solari. 2nd Row: Amanda Stein, Alexa Gutheil, Sara Paisner, Stephanie Liebman, Germaine Li.

Although we didn't do as well as we had hoped, we worked hard and had a great time. Since no one is leaving, next year should be even better. Bye Reina, Hello Lisa, Welcome Back Kim!

Thanks for all the help!
Amanda . . . Relax!
Germaine . . . Smile!
Lynn . . . Is that split comfortable?
Stephanie . . . Tag team gymnastics.
Alexa . . . Got another riddle?
Camille . . . Slow down!
Which ending this time?

Thank you all,
See you next year!
Yardena, Captain.





BOYS' GYMNASTICS

1st Row: Nick Ioannou, Dan Huynh, Lin Tea, (captain) David Hickman, Lee Chan, Thinh Do, (coach) Dwight Tom.

Coming together as a team and working hard is a goal in itself. Many teams never even reach this goal, but we were able to. We all contributed our most sincere efforts and were able to make up a team from all new members. Each person should take pride in this. As well as becoming a team, we also became friends, which is a bond that will last forever.

I would like to thank all of you for giving it your best! A special thanks to Dwight Tom, who was always there to support us. You taught us discipline and honor, which are lessons that will stay with us forever.

To all the children:

It strikes us as odd that all during dryland it was twenty degrees (or less) and snowing, yet when it came time to race it was forty degrees, slushy, rocky, etc. But we managed to survive in spite of (or as Erich would say, due to) the 100 push-up practices, Royal Canadian Mounted Police leg lifts, Butch's constant, "Am I looking thin dear?", and the perilous journey to South Brookline dodging traffic all the way. We are sure Butch will miss those who are leaving, especially Perkins. But he'll still have Wasserperson and Meyers to yell at. Have fun next year and be sure that your captains next year have matching spandex.

SENIOR LETTER

What can we say to you our class
That has not been said before?
Time goes by extremely fast,
We'll be at B.H.S. no more.

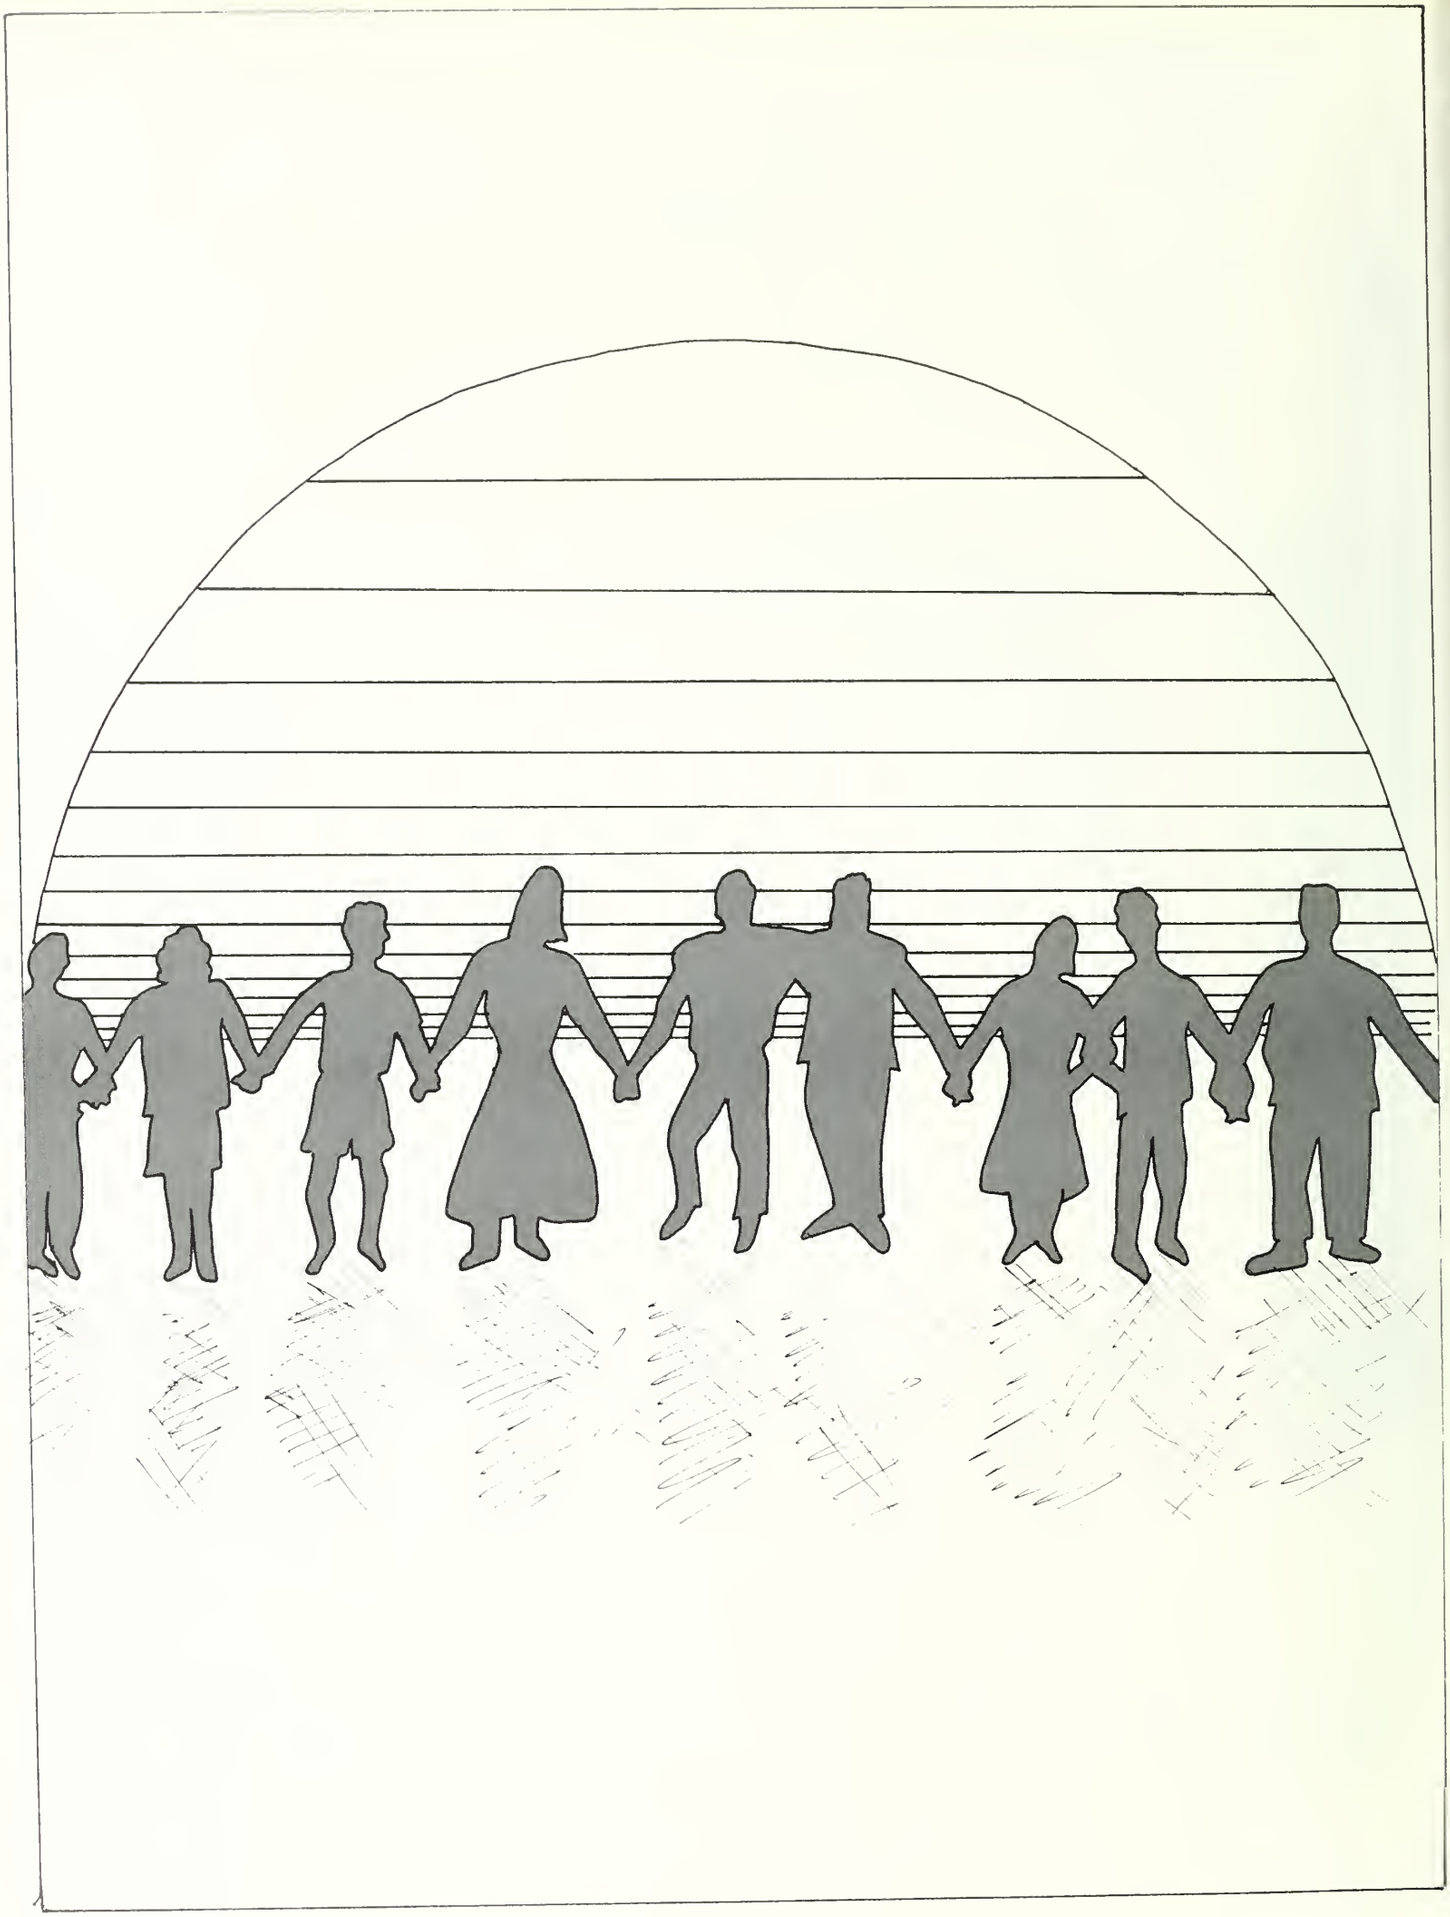
Yesterday we were in the first grade,
Learning our ABC's.
Second through sixth we had it made,
And seventh and eighth were a breeze.

Freshman year, sophomore year,
And junior came and went,
Now, seniors, we are so near
To college we'll be sent.
"Begin again" as we have in times past,
To do things fresh and new.
Just as we did as freshmen last
We will in the future too.

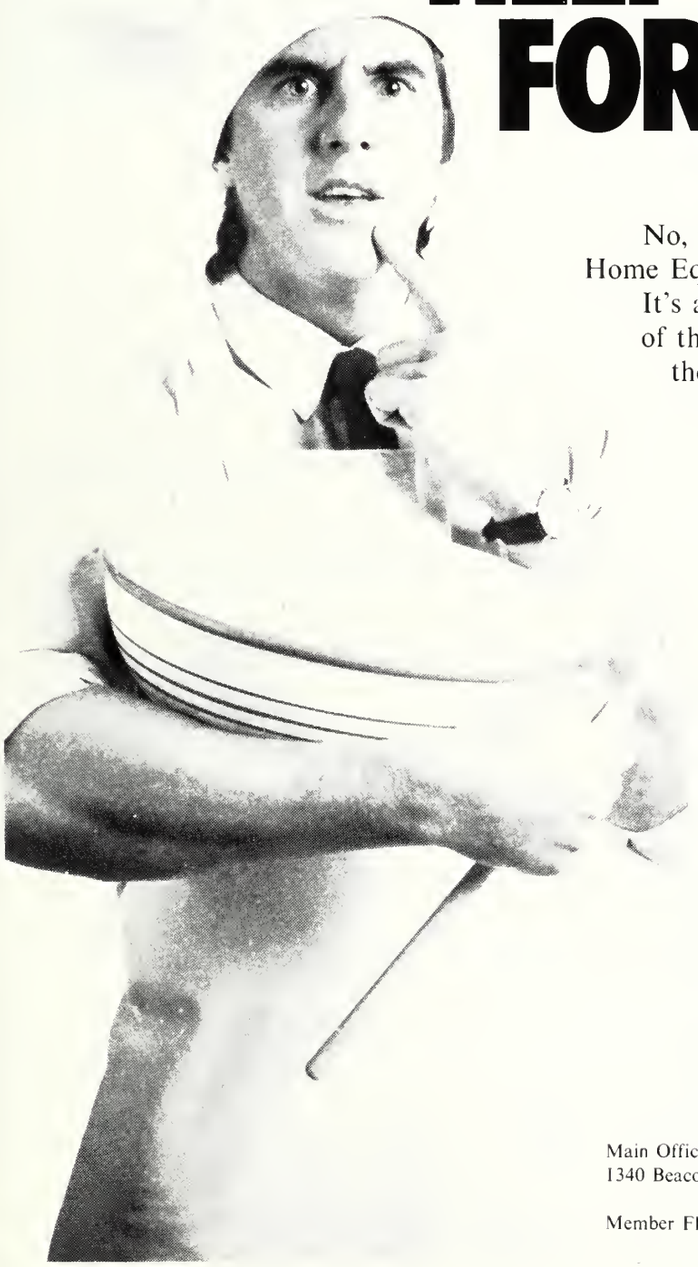
So, underclassmen, we say farewell.
Good luck in all your studies.
To all our teachers, thank you all,
And the same goes for our buddies.

Congratulations

To The Class Of 1990!



HOW A COURSE IN HOME EC CAN HELP YOU PAY FOR COLLEGE.



No, not home economics. Brookline Savings Bank's Home Equity Loan.

It's a line of credit that lets you borrow as much as 70% of the equity in your owner-occupied house or condo, less the first mortgage — up to $100,000.

Now it's easy to meet those big college bills. Using your line of credit is as simple as writing a check. And, under the new tax bill, it's tax deductible.

Because a Home Equity Loan is secured by the equity in your home, the rate is only 1½ points above the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal. And there are no fees!*

Take a quick course in home equity at any Brookline Savings branch today. Our customer service reps have all the facts. And all qualified homeowners are sure to pass.

*Assuming no appraisal and no current secondary financing on your property.

"What a long, strange trip it's been."
— Grateful Dead

Well, actually it's neither been long nor strange. It feels as if you were an infant only last week. Its been an exciting voyage as we learned as much from you as you (hopefully) learned from us. You are a remarkable young woman — one we obviously love and, equally important, respect. The voyage is not over. It will just begin again in a different place. Enjoy it.

THE BUILDERS

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

All are architects of Fate,
  Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
  Some with ornaments of rhyme.

Nothing useless is, or low;
  Each thing in its place is best;
And what seems but idle show
  Strengthens and supports the rest.

For the structure that we raise,
  Time is with materials filled;
Our to-days and yesterdays
  Are the blocks with which we build.

Truly shape and fashion these;
  Leave no yawning gaps between;
Think not, because no man sees,
  Such things will remain unseen.

In the elder days of Art,
  Builders wrought with greatest care
Each minute and unseen part;
  For the Gods see everywhere.

Let us do our work as well,
  Both the unseen and the seen;
Make the house, where Gods may dwell,
  Beautiful, entire, and clean.

Else our lives are incomplete,
  Standing in these walls of Time.
Broken stairways, where the feet
  Stumbel as they seek to climb.

Build to-day, then, strong and sure,
  With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
  Shall to-morrow find its place.

Thus alone can we attain
  To those turrets, where the eye
Sees the world as one vast plain,
  And one bouldless reach of sky.

Congratulations, Gabrielle

A daughter is, right from the start
The darling of your doting heart —
The charming apple of your eye,
A little doll, a sweetie pie...

You'd hardly guess that one small tot
Could make you love her such a lot —
Or find so many girlish ways
To bring delight to all your days...

And as she grows — your love and pride
Grow with her, and you feel inside
The hope that someday she'll know, too
The happiness she's brought to you!

Dear Rachel,

Our love, support and pride are yours always. As you enter this new phase in your life ... remember your dreams, reach for your goals and never change your smile and spirit.

Love,

SUNSETS

There are sunsets who whisper a good-by.
It is a short dusk and a way for stars.
Prairie and sea rim they go level and even
And the sleep is easy.

There are sunsets who dance good-by.
They fling scarves half to the arc,
To the arc then and over the arc.
Ribbons at the ears, sashes at the hips,
Dancing, dancing good-by.

— Carl Sandburg
